

COMMUNITY SERVICE FOR BIOLOGY

Objective: Communities need citizen involvement in taking care of the environment, helping citizens in need and serving as role models for youngsters. The objective of the community service component of this Biology class is for students to get experience in organized community service activities, or in organizing activities on their own.

Requirement: Students must complete 10 hours of community service per semester, or 20 hours per school year. Biology-related hours count double, but must be preapproved by the teacher. By the end of each semester, this page containing the following information must be submitted.

Student name: _____ Period: _____

Date(s) of community service: _____

Number of hours completed: _____ Biology related hours NonBiology related hours

Organization & Location of community service: _____

Supervisor name (print & signature): _____

Supervisor day phone and/or email: _____

Description of service performed (use the back if necessary): _____

COMMUNITY SERVICE FOR BIOLOGY

Objective: Communities need citizen involvement in taking care of the environment, helping citizens in need and serving as role models for youngsters. The objective of the community service component of this Biology class is for students to get experience in organized community service activities, or in organizing activities on their own.

Requirement: Students must complete 10 hours of community service per semester, or 20 hours per school year. Biology-related hours count double, but must be preapproved by the teacher. By the end of each semester, this page containing the following information must be submitted.

Student name: _____ Period: _____

Date(s) of community service: _____

Number of hours completed: _____ Biology related hours NonBiology related hours

Organization & Location of community service: _____

Supervisor name (print & signature): _____

Supervisor day phone and/or email: _____

Description of service performed (use the back if necessary): _____
